

THERE YOU WERE

*Fought the good fight finished the race
Got lost a few times somehow kept the faith
A journey of gratitude, grit, and some grace
Back to where I started not to the same place
There you were*

*Took a long time to learn how to love and be loved
In the clutter and clatter find who I truly was Somehow to believe in the end it's enough
Somewhere in the midst of such powerful stuff
There you were*

*Did my best round these campfires to put it all down
To show what I've been through to share what I found
If I didn't know it then I sure do know it now
Each in our own way is homeward bound*

*It's been quite a journey of stories and songs
People I've met and the places we've gone
Found enough reasons to keep going on
And then that one thing should have known all along
There you were*
